

Support the Mission and Ministry of United Methodist Racial Ethnic Local Churches of West Michigan Conference

Your church's special offering supports:

- ☛ United Methodist local churches and their pastors and leaders engaged in outreach and evangelism with multi-ethnic people and communities. 2 multi-ethnic churches are located in diverse cities of Grand Rapids and Lansing.
- ☛ Historic and diverse ethnic-racial UMC churches of Michigan, including 6 Indian Mission churches (Kewadin, Northport, Charlevoix, Mt. Pleasant, Hopkins, Bradley), 1 African American church (Battle Creek), 1 Hispanic church (Grand Rapids), 1 Korean church (Lansing), and 1 Vietnamese church (Grand Rapids). All local churches are welcoming to all people.
- ☛ A range of racial-ethnic local church ministries include worship services, and outreach programs (Native American Elders Program in Grand Rapids) that welcome people of different cultures, backgrounds, and languages.

The Racial Ethnic Local Church (RELC) committee's purpose is to support and strengthen racial ethnic churches in West Michigan Conference and build conference-wide support for special ministries in outreach, evangelism, and discipleship with culturally diverse people and communities.

For more information, contact RELC chairperson Rev. Geri Litchfield at Williamsburg United Methodist Church (231) 267-5792 or by email pastorgerilitchfield@gmail.com.

THANK YOU!
