MISSIONARIES WITHIN THE DETROIT ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Mary Gladstone-Highland – Advance #982022
Church and Community Worker
Community Outreach Director, Clarkston UMC,
Clarkston, MI

Mary Gladstone-Highland is a Church and Community Worker recently assigned as the Community Outreach Director at Clarkston United Methodist Church. A native of Michigan and a member of the Detroit Annual Conference, she holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in English, with a minor in Nonprofit Administration from Western Michigan University. Mary worked as a Mission Intern all four summers in college, and felt her call to mission through the eyes of children in Detroit, Port Huron, and Crystal Falls, MI. As a US-2 missionary Mary's life was wholly transformed during her five year placement as Development Director at Deaf Shalom Zone in Baltimore, Maryland. She was able to serve the Deaf and Deaf-Blind Community, her passion, with her fluency in American Sign Language.

Randy Hildebrant – Advance #982961
Church & Community Worker
God's Country Cooperative Parish, Newbery, MI

Randy Hildebrant is a Church and Community Worker assigned to God's Country Cooperative Parish in the Detroit Annual Conference. Randy has served as a Church and Community worker for 13 years, serving the Rural Revitalization Project of the Elkhorn Valley District in the Nebraska Conference and the Jubilee Project, an Appalachian ministry based in Sneedville, Tennessee in the Holston Annual Conference. He has a strong commitment to rural ministry and is excited about his ministry with the GCCP team's collective efforts to bring self-esteem, hope and faith to all God's children throughout the vast parish. Earlier in his work, he was assistant pastor of the Franklin United Methodist Church in Franklin, North Carolina. Randy was born in Oklahoma and studied sports administration at East Central University in Ada.

Sonya Luna – Advance #3019618
NPLHM Missionary
Director for Hispanic and Latino Ministries,
Michigan Area of the UMC

Sonya Luna is a missionary with the Board of Global Ministries of The United Methodist Church serving through the National Plan for Hispanic and Latino Ministries (NPHLM) in the Detroit Annual Conference. Native to Michigan, Sonya earned her Bachelor of Arts from Kalamazoo College. She worked as Latino Ministries Coordinator for Ypsilanti First United Methodist Church, her home church, and as a foreign language teacher for the Maple Academy in Oaxaca, Mexico. She began working in the Detroit Annual Conference in her current position in January 2008, and has recently expanded responsibilities as Detroit Conference Director and Michigan Area Director for Hispanic and Latino Ministries.

Charissa Bredow-Shawcross – Advance #982983
GBGM Mission Interpreter, North Central Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church

Charissa Bredow Shawcross is a missionary with the General Board of Global Ministries of The United Methodist Church serving as Mission Interpreter in Residence for the denomination's North Central Jurisdiction, a position she assumed in late October 2012. Mission Interpreters in Residence (MIIRs) are missionaries assigned to assist annual conferences, districts, and local churches in the United States to understand and participate in global mission. As a nurse practitioner, Charissa has served the homeless in downtown Detroit and was director of Joy-Southfield Health Clinic, a United Methodist-sponsored free clinic for the uninsured. Born in Michigan, she earned her Masters of Science/Nursing in adult health from Wayne State University in Detroit in 1993. She has worked as adjunct faculty at the college level, as a nurse practitioner in advanced cardiovascular services, and as a parish nurse with Central United Methodist Church and the N.O.A.H. Project in Detroit.

Chelsea Spyres – Advance #3021996
Global Mission Fellow (US-2), N.O.A.H. Project, Detroit, MI

Chelsea Spyres is a Global Mission Fellow of the United Methodist General Board of Global Ministries, serving a two-year term of service at the N.O.A.H. Project in Detroit. She was commissioned in July 2014. The Global Mission Fellows program takes young adults ages 20-30 out of their home environments and places them in new contexts for two years of mission service. The program grew out of the faith and justice emphases of the historic United Methodist US-2 and Mission Intern programs. Chelsea is from Newark, Delaware, where she is a member of the Newark United Methodist Church in the Peninsula Delaware Annual Conference. She holds a Bachelor of Science degree in human services from the University of Delaware, also in Newark. Chelsea will serve as a caseworker at N.O.A.H. Her responsibilities include meeting with clients one-on-one to discuss strategies for personal growth, provide referrals for food, clothing, and housing, and give a listening ear, support, and encouragement.

MISSIONARIES BEYOND THE DETROIT ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Churches may support other GBGM Missionaries. The missionaries listed on this page are the suggested missionaries for the Detroit Conference. For more information, please visit umcmmission.org.

Alex Awad – Advance #10825Z
Brenda Awad – Advance #10826Z

Rev. Alex Awad and his wife, Brenda Awad, are missionaries with the General Board of Global Ministries of The United Methodist Church serving in Israel/Palestine. Rev. Awad pastors a small international church in East Jerusalem and is affiliated with the Bethlehem Bible College as professor, dean of students, and board member. Brenda fills a wide range of functions at the church - Sunday School director and teacher, women's group leader, and hospitality coordinator. At the Bible College, she assists with English administrative needs and developing proposals for the college's world-wide support base. Brenda and her husband also participate in and support the activities of Musalaha (an Arab-Israeli reconciliation organization).

Beatrice Gbanga – Advance #13108Z

Beatrice Mamawah Gbanga is a missionary with the Board of Global Ministries of The United Methodist Church based in Sierra Leone, West Africa. She is Medical Coordinator for the Sierra Leone Annual Conference and supervises the work of KISSY Hospital and the seven medical clinics supported by the annual conference. “When I was in the USA in 1997, ...war broke out in Sierra Leone, which made me stay longer. ... then, I got a call from the GBGM to apply for mission service. I believe God wanted me to serve him in this way.”

Princess Jusu – Advance #13037Z

Princess Jusu is a missionary with the Board of Global Ministries of The United Methodist Church serving in Monrovia, Liberia, as an instructor at the United Methodist Women's Training Center. “I am hopeful and prayerful that my service will be one that contributes to a more positive environment and will be productive for the women and children that I can assist while on assignment.”

Pierre Diamba Many – Advance #15165Z

Pierre Diamba Many, MD, is a missionary with the United Methodist General Board of Global Ministries currently serving as coordinator of health and medical services of the Central Congo Episcopal Area in the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC). A gynecologist and surgeon, Dr. Many has been in medical mission since 1984. “I perceive my work as a min- istry,” he says. “Physical healing was a key part of Jesus’ ministry. ... So, when I treat people, or do surgery, it is God who helps to heal them. When they are healed, they thank God and sing songs of praise and become followers of Jesus Christ. It is a way of evangelization.”

Helen Roberts-Evans – Advance #3021129

Helen Roberts-Evans is a missionary of the General Board of Global Ministries of The United Methodist Church, serving as director of the Department of General Education and Ministry of the United Methodist Church in Liberia. Helen’s work includes meeting needs in such areas as teacher training, scholarships, resources, new school construction, and school building renovation and repair. “I want to share the love of Christ with each child because I know that His love brings peace and gives strength to overcome life’s challenges.”

Paul Lee Webster – Advance #11865Z

Rev. Paul L. Webster, is a missionary with the Board of Global Ministries of The United Methodist Church serving as a rural economic development specialist at the Mujila Falls Agriculture Centre in Kanyama, Zambia. The projects he develops and oversees serve the needs of poor, rural peoples in this country. “As a rural development specialist I am attacking the root causes of poverty, disease, and hopelessness through education and training in small animal husbandry, cattle and goat milking, animal traction, tree nurseries, fruit culture, gardening and fish culture at our research and demonstration station. The goals are families who can provide balanced nutrition for themselves and an income from small scale, family-based production.”

Daniel Gabler – Advance #12939Z
Rachel Gabler – Advance #12940Z

Daniel Gabler and his wife Rachel, are missionaries with the General Board of Global Ministries of The United Methodist Church. Dan is serving as a pilot in aviation ministries in the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC). He is also the head of a maintenance center for three flight ministries in that country. Rachel is sharing her gifts and skills with educational and aviation ministries. Both Dan and Rachel think that being a missionary is exciting and fulfilling! He and Rachel say they are “... grateful that God has allowed them to do this.”

Missionaries 2015

Mary Randall Zigbuo – Advance #10721Z

Mary Randall Zigbuo is a missionary with the General Board of Global Ministries of The United Methodist Church and, as of November 2014, is reassigned to assist with the United Methodist Liberia Ebola response in Liberia as the administrator at Ganta Hospital. Mary Zigbuo has been a missionary in Liberia for more than 20 years; working in the areas of health, and social-welfare ministries. Mary's strong background in counseling, education, coaching, and administration well prepares her for responding to a variety of needs and services through The GBGM partnership organizations and worldwide church network.

Ut Van To – Advance #14175Z
Karen Vo To – Advance #14174Z

Rev. Dr. Ut Van To and his wife, Rev. Karen Vo-To, are missionaries with the General Board of Global Ministries of The United Methodist Church assigned to Vietnam. Dr. To is country director and mission superintendent. Dr. To trains Christian leaders and incorporates Wesley's model of class meetings or cell groups into the Vietnamese culture, tradition, and social settings of the country in his effort to establish new congregations. In addition to recruiting women to study for pastoral ministry, Rev. Vo-To also serves the needs of women who are victims of sexual abuse, homeless, have been imprisoned, and those who are struggling with substance abuse. Both Reverends have served in Vietnam since 2002.
